

Lesson 7 Adjectives

Book work

Exercise 1

Underline the adjectives of quality in the following sentences.

- a) The girl has a sweet voice.
- b) I like red roses list of
- c) Always drink fresh water.
- d) The foolish Crow tried to sing.
- e) That boy is naughty.
- f) That black cat caught a small bird.

Exercise 2

Write down three sentences in your notebook each containing an adjective of quality.

1. Netaji was a great man.
2. Mother Teresa was a kind woman.
3. He is a punctual student.

Exercise 3

Underline the objectives of quality in the following passage.

Brave ,strong, intelligent, strong, giant, giant, sharp, giant, giant, giant, strong, brave.

Exercise 4

Underline the adjectives of quantity/ number in the following sentences.

- a) Ayush ate the whole chocolate.
- b) Children finished the most of the cake.
- c) I have scored hundred marks in math.
- d) You have enough time to complete this work.
- e) She did the work with little effort.

- f) Ria has bought some new dresses.
- g) The first boy in the row is wearing a red hat.
- h) I have four pet dogs.

Exercise 5

Write down three sentences in your notebook each containing an adjective of quality.

1. Sonia took 30 chocolates for her friends.
2. Some of my pencils got lost.
3. Many people came to see the parade.

Exercise 6

Underline the demonstrative adjectives in the following sentences.

- a) I don't like these shirts.
- b) Do you think these boots would fit you?
- c) Is this book the one you want?
- d) Which of these colours do you like?
- e) How do you do this sum?
- f) Whose are those books?
- g) Who made this shirt?
- h) I do not like such people.

Exercise 7

Underline the interrogative and possessive adjectives in the following sentences. Write (I) for interrogative and (P) possessive sentences.

- a) Don't sit on my chair. P
- b) Which is your class? P
- c) Which boy has done this? I
- d) Who has taken my pencil? P
- e) Are these their books? P
- f) No they are our books. P
- g) What is your name? P

h) Which house is yours? I

Exercise 8

Complete the following sentences using an adjective belonging to the categories specified.

- a) We had to take a long route to reach our destination. (adjective of quality)
- b) I have bought two eggs. (numeral adjective)
- c) We should be good citizens. (adjective of quality)
- d) Not much milk is required to prepare this dish. (adjective of quantity)
- e) When will his photos be ready. (Possessive adjective)
- f) That boy stole the book. (demonstrative adjective)

COPY WORK

Q1) What is an adjective?

Ans) An adjective is a word which modifies noun and pronoun.

Q2) Define adjectives of quality?

Ans) Adjectives which tell us of what kind of person or thing is are called Adjectives of quality. Adjectives of quality answer the question 'of what kind?'

Q3) Define adjectives of quantity/ number.

Ans. Adjectives which tell us how many or how much are called adjectives of quantity or number. They answered the question 'how many ?' or 'how much?'

Q4) Define demonstrative adjective.

Ans. Adjectives that are used to modify a noun so that we know which specific person, place or thing is mentioned are called demonstrative adjective. They answer the question 'which?'

Q5) Define interrogative adjective.

Ans. Interrogative adjectives are adjectives that are used with nouns to ask questions such as what, whose, where and which.

Q6) Define possessive adjectives.

Ans. Possessive adjectives refer to words which modify noun by giving a sense of belonging to a particular person or thing. They tell 'whose' a thing is.