

Class – 6

Sub. – M.Sc.

Ch. – 5

Friendship

A. Answer the following questions:

1. Why do we need friends?

Ans. – We need friends to share our joys and sorrows.

2. Why do we share our joys and happiness with our friends ?

Ans. – We share our joys and happiness with our friends because by sharing these are doubled.

3. Who are not good friends ?

Ans. – Those friends who do evil things, not correct our mistakes, love us for money are not good friends.

4. What are the qualities of good friends ?

Ans. – A good friend share joys and sorrows and must be sincere and loyal.

B. Fill in the blanks:

1. We make friends to make life happy and enjoyable.
2. Friendship demands trust and sacrifice.
3. A friend in need is a friend indeed.
4. All care must be taken to sustain good friends.

C. Write T for true and F for false:

1. We often need the help of others. T
2. A life without friends is not worth living. T
3. When we share our sorrows with our friends, these are doubled. T
4. We should not care for friends. F