

CHRISTU JYOTHI CONVENT SR.SEC SCHOOL,BARAUT

Class- III

Subject- English II

Poem- [ A Bird came down the walk]

Copywork:-

Answer the following questions.

1 Who is the poet talking about in this poem?

Ans. The poet is talking about a bird in this poem.

2 Who is referred to as fellow in the poem?

Ans. An angleworm is referred to as fellow in the poem.

3 What did the bird drink?

Ans. The bird drank dew from the grass.

4 What did the poet offer the bird?

Ans. The poet offered the bird a crumb.

5 Name the insects mentioned in the poem.

Ans. Anglemorm, beetle, and butterflies are a few insects mentioned in the poem.

Reference to the context:-

1 They looked----- Velvet Head.

(a) Why did the bird's eyes look like brightened beads?

Ans. The bird's eyes look like brightened beads because someone had seen him eating angleworm.

(b) What was the bird looking for?

Ans. The bird was looking here and there to find out whether someone was watching him.

(c) Make a sentence with the word stirred.

Ans. Panic stirred within her, along with cold fear.

2 And he ----- softer home.

(a) What is the bird exactly trying to do?

Ans. He hopped sideways to let a beetle pass.

(b) Which detail from the poem supports the idea that humans can enjoy nature but should not bother its creatures?

Ans. The description of the bird drinking dew from the grass shows that human beings can enjoy nature without bothering other creatures.

(c) Make a sentence with the word unrolled.

Ans. The tricolor was unrolled to mark the celebrations of Independence Day.

Bookwork:-

Page- 48 Underline the sound words.

1 The child said, 'Ssshhh!'

2 The car went vroom, vroom.

3 The guns went boom, boom.

4 Jingle bells, Jingle bells Jingle all the way!

5 The door shut with a clang.

6 The bell went ding-dong, ding-dong.