

Poem - The Snare

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What does the poet hear ?

Ans. The poet hears a sudden cry of pain.

2. What make the speaker think that a rabbit has been caught up in a Snare?

Ans. Because he can hear it's frightened voice crying out of help.

3. Why does the rabbit wrinkle its face?

Ans. It wrinkles its face because he is in pain and frightened.

4. Does the poet's search end ? Pick the line that supports your answer?

Ans. No, the poet's search doesn't end ."I am searching everywhere "-this line shows that his search doesn't end.

5. Does the poet finally find the Snare?

Ans. No, the poet doesn't find the Snare.

B. Answer the following questions with reference to context.

1. Now I hear the cry again but I cannot tell from where.

(a) What cry does the poet hear?

Ans. The poet hears the cry of a rabbit caught in a Snare.

(b) Does the poet seem worried about the cry?

Ans. Yes ,he is worried because he feels that the life of a rabbit is in danger.

(c) What does the poet try to do?

Ans. The poet tries to look for the rabbit to help it.

2. Making everything afraid !Wrinkling up his little face!

(a) Who is 'his' in the above lines?

Ans. His refers to the rabbit.

(b) What makes everything afraid?

Ans. He is making everything afraid with his cries so that someone can help him.

(c) How is he feeling?

Ans. He is in pain and is crying out for help.

4. The roaring lion scare the children. Present participle.

5. I was embarrassed by your behaviour. Past participle

6. Don't be frightened the parrot does not bite. Past participle

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What are the paralympics?

Ans. Paralympics is a major sporting event in which physically challenged people take part.

2. Why and by whom were they started?

Ans. German born Dr Ludwing Guttman from Stoke Mandeville Hospital started these games in 1948 as he wanted to create a platform for disabled people who wished to participate in sports.

3. Who was the first athlete with a disability to participate in the Olympic games?

Ans. A gymnast George Eyser was the first athlete with a disability to participate in the Olympic Games in 1904 Olympics.

4. Where and when were the first paralympics held?

Ans. The first paralympics were held in Rome in 1960.

5. What did the Paralympic Games aim to do?

Ans. The Paralympic Games aimed to give an open field to people with physical challenges and help them enjoy different types of sports the games were specifically created for people with various types of physical challenges that made it difficult to participate in national and international level Sports.

6. What is the Motto and flag of the Paralympic Games?

Ans. The motto of the Paralympic Games is spirit in motion and its symbol contains three colours; red ,blue and green ;colour that are most widely represented in the flags of nations these three symbols circle each other to show AGITO meaning motion.

B. Answer the following questions with reference to context.

1 he had a wooden leg but that didn't stop him from winning six medals in the 1904 Olympics.

(a) Which games are we talking about?

Ans. The Olympic games of 1904 has been mentioned here.

(b) Who is the person being spoken about?

Ans. The person who is referred to here is a German American gymnast named George Eyser.

(c) Why was winning medals a big achievement for him?

Ans. Winning medals was a major achievement for Eyser since he had a wooden leg and yet had won six medals.

2 They are to get equal treatment as non disabled Olympic athletes.

(a) Who participate in the paralympics?

Ans. Sports men with physical challenges participate in the paralympics.

(b) Why are they not getting equal treatment?

Ans. Because there is only a handful of organisations which support Paralympic Games.

(c) What do they need?

Ans. They require financial support to come at par with able-bodied Olympic athletes so they require organisations to support and fund their events.

3. These three symbols circle each other to show AGITO.

(a) What does AGITO mean?

Ans. AGITO means motion.

(b) What does it symbolise?

Ans. It is a symbol that shows the effort of bringing people from all over the world together.

(c) What is the motto of the games?

Ans. The motto of the games is spirit in motion.

Lesson -6

"Mother Teresa "

(Page no.63)

Each of the words given below has a homonym. Make sentences with the word so that their two different meanings are clear.

You can take the help of a dictionary.

1. Lie- I am just going to lie down for a few minutes.

Tim lied about his age to get the job.

2. Spring- The cushion has lost its spring.

Mr Darcy will retire next spring.

3. Die- Andrew died at a young age.

The die is cast -I can't turn back.

4. Pole- Jim grabbed Martha's fishing pole to help her pull the fish.

The line man had to climb the pole to fix the telegraph wire.

5. Bark- The dog barked at Nancy.

The bark extract of the cinchona tree are used to cure Malaria lost 100 pounds in gambling.

6. Pound- Jeremy
We sell butter by the pound.

(Page no.63)

A. Underline the adverbs in the following sentences and write their kinds one has been done for you.

1. The cat waited patiently for its master to return.

Adverb of manner

2. We will begin the lesson now.

Adverb of time.

3. The child looked everywhere for his mother.

Adverb of place

4. She quietly crossed the door to go to her.

Adverb of manner

The thief was nearly caught by the police.

Adverb of degree

He really did not mean to say that.

Adverb of degree

(Page no.64)

B. Match the words in column A to the adverb in column B.

A	B
1. Travel	overseas
2. Drive	safely
3. Speak	clearly
4. Stay up	late
5. Get up	early
6. Try	hard

C. Circle the adjectives and underline the adverbs in the following sentences .One has been done for you some sentences have only an adverb or an adjective.

1. The shirt is dirty ,wash it thoroughly.

dirty-adjective, thoroughly- adverb

2. My old grandfather speaks very slowly.

Slowly -adverb

3. The weather is very fine today.

Very -adjective ,fine -adverb

4. He always comes late to class.

Late -adverb

5. These roses smell very sweet.

Very -adjective ,sweet -adverb

6. She performed badly in today's exam.

Badly -adverb

A. Answer the following questions.

1. When and where was Mother Teresa born?

Ans. Mother Teresa was born in 1910 in the capital of Republic of Macedonia.

2. Watermark cable change came in her life at the age of 18?

Ans. Agnes became a none at the age of 18.

3. What did Mother Teresa initially do in India?

Ans. In India Mother Teresa was assigned to teach the girls of Kolkata's poorest Bengali families at Saint Mary's High School she dedicated herself to making the girls self reliant through education.

4. Why did Mother Teresa found the home for the dying?

Ans. Mother Teresa founded the Home of the dying as she felt that the destitute should also have the right to pass away a with dignity.

5. When was the Nobel Peace Prize awarded to Mother Teresa?

Ans. Mother Teresa was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979.

6. When did Mother Teresa breath her last?

Ans. Mother Teresa died on 5th September 1997 at the age of 87.

B. Answer the following questions with reference to context.

1. She had always felt a calling in her life to serve the needy.

(a) Who is she?

Ans. She refers to Mother Teresa.

(b) What calling did she feel?

Ans. Mother Teresa felt a calling to serve the needy.

(c) What did she do for the needy?

Ans. Mother Teresa opened a leper Colony and orphanage and Nursing Home ,a family Clinic and several mobile health clinics. She also opened a home for the destitute and offer them a scope to die with dignity. It was named the home for the dying.

2. She dedicated herself to making the girls self-reliant through education.

(a) What kind of families did the girls belong to?

Ans. The girls came from families which were poorest of the poor.

(b) What did she do for them?

Ans. She gave them education and helped them become self reliant.

(c) Where did they study?

Ans. The girls studied at Saint Mary's High School.

3. Mother Teresa was a living Saint who has been a source of inspiration to millions across the world.

(a) Who was the living Saint?

Ans. Mother Teresa was a living Saint.

(b) Why was she called a saint?

Ans. Because he dedicated her entire life to serving the poorest of the poor.

(c) How does she serve as a source of inspiration to others?

Ans. Mother Teresa worked selflessly for the betterment of the poor ,destitute and the needy. So she became a ray of hope for people from the downtrodden sections of the society. Today millions across the world are working tirelessly ,helping the needy all around the world, carrying forward her work.