

Class – 6

Sub. – M.Sc.

Ch. – 10

Criticism

A. Answer the following questions:

1. What is criticism?

Ans. – Criticism means finding faults in someone or something.

2. Who is criticized?

Ans. – Everyone who does some good will always be criticised by others.

3. What is destructive criticism?

Ans. – It usually results from jealousy, irresponsibility and hatred.

4. How does constructive criticism help us?

Ans. – Constructive criticism helps us to improve and progress.

5. How should we react when someone criticizes us?

Ans. – If someone criticises us we should react in positive and best possible manner.

B. Fill in the blanks:

1. Criticism is a part of our life.

2. Constructive criticism is very useful.

3. Destructive criticism does a lot of harm.

4. We should prepare ourselves to face criticism.

C. Write T for true and F for false:

1. Whatever we do will be criticised. T

2. Destructive criticism results from jealousy and hatred. T

3. We should not react to criticism. F

4. We can surely be benefitted from criticism. F

5. Criticism is the only way to improve. T

Ch. – 11

Patience

A. Answer the following questions:

1. What is patience?

Ans. – Patience is bearing all sorrows with courage.

2. In what way does patience help us to understand others?

Ans. – Patience gives us the good will to listen carefully and to understand others.

3. How does patience bring about success?

Ans. – Patience is the key to success. It prevents us from taking wrong decision.

4. How can we say that God is very patient?

Ans. – God himself is full of patience. He forgives us for our offences. He does not punish us.

5. What does the impatient man do when something goes wrong?

Ans. – Impatient man cannot accept failures or sufferings and take wrong decisions.

B. Fill in the blanks:

1. Patience is bearing all sorrows with courage.
2. A man with patience is usually calm and quiet.
3. Patience shows faith in God.
4. Impatient people do not accept failure and sufferings.

C. Write T for true and F for false:

1. Columbus discovered America. T
2. A patient man never fails in inventing things. T
3. Impatient people do not believe in God. T
4. Patient people are always silent. T