

Class – 6

Sub. – M.Sc.

Ch.- 14

Responsibility

A. Answer The following questions.

1. What is responsibility?

Answer. Responsibility is a great quality which all of us should have.

2. Who is a responsible person?

Answer. When a person does his duty in the best possible way without bothering about difficulties, we say the person is responsible.

3. Why should we be responsible now?

Answer. We should be responsible now because responsible person are appreciated by all.

4. What are the signs of a irresponsibility?

Answer. Irresponsibility shows childishness, selfishness, carelessness and forgetfulness.

5. Was aman more responsible? Give reasons for your answer.

Answer. Yes, aman was more responsible than his brother because he has done work with more responsibility.

B. Fill in the blanks.

1. Coming late to School is an irresponsible behaviour.
2. The country requires responsible citizens.
3. Two brothers worked with their father on the family's farm.
4. Aman was more responsible than his brother Sharad.

C. Write T for true and F for false.

1. Responsible people are trustworthy. T
2. Poor people are irresponsible. F
3. Children have no responsibility. F
4. Everyone has certain responsibilities. T

Ch. – 15

Self-confidence

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What is self confidence?

Answer. Self confidence is the faith or trust one has in oneself.

2. Why is self confidence necessary?

Answer. Self confidence is necessary for success.

3. How does self confidence differ from over confidence?

Answer. Self confidence is the outcome of positive outlook while overconfidence is the outcome of pride.

4. How can one have self confidence?

Answer. One can have self confidence with tremendous faith in God.

5. Why is it wrong to have overconfidence?

Answer. To have overconfidence turn out us to become proud and it is the first step of downfall.

B. Fill in the blanks.

1. Self confidence is the faith one has in oneself.

2. Self confidence comes from self esteem.

3. Overconfidence is the outcome of pride.

4. Milton, the Great poet, was blind.

5. Helen Keller, was both deaf and blind.

C. Write T for true and F or false.

1. Self confidence makes us proud.F

2. Self confidence shows our faith in God.T

3. Self confidence brings success.T

4. It is good to have self esteem.T

5. Self confidence is the result of education.T