

Class – 6

Sub. – M.Sc.

Ch. – 8

Importance of discipline

A. Answer the following questions:

1. What is discipline?

Ans. Discipline is an orderly behaviour.

2. Why is discipline necessary?

Ans. Discipline is necessary to live a happy life.

3. What is self-discipline?

Ans. Self-discipline means self control of all emotions.

4. What is the use of self-discipline?

Ans. Self-discipline will take us to the heights of glory and happiness.

5. What happens if a child is not disciplined?

Ans. If a child is not disciplined, then he/she cannot concentrate on studies and cause problems to others.

B. Fill in the blanks:

1. Discipline may be defined as orderly behaviour.

2. Discipline is the backbone of a family, an institution and a nation.

3. Actual discipline is self-discipline.

4. Self-discipline will take us to the heights of glory and happiness.

C. Write T for true and F for false:

1. Discipline is punishment. F

2. Self-discipline is the best discipline. T

3. Discipline demands denial of rights. F

4. Military discipline is what is needed at home. F

5. Lack of discipline can damage society. T